

Bullying: How to defend yourself

Behaviour such as intimidation, threat, oppression, either physical or emotional, by a more powerful person (the bully), usually repeated over time, that intentionally targets a less powerful person (the victim).

Bullying involves both boys and girls and it usually takes place at school, but also on the streets and in public places.

Italian

26/01/2018