

An online guide for mountain tourists

The Alpine training centre in Moena is entrusted with mountain rescue operations and safety. They ensure order on ski slopes and work along them, taking action in case of accidents to help the injured.

They also participate in searches for high altitude missing persons.

27/04/2011