

Police dog adoption: Tommy is looking for loving care

Tommy is a male German Shepherd who needs a new home. He was born in 2004 and was specifically trained in drug detection.

Now it is time for him to retire for health reasons, so he seeks a new owner.

He is a friendly guy, who adapts easily, but would be best suited to a household with no young children.

If you are interested in learning more about Tommy, please read the relevant information sheet.

To adopt one of our dogs, please fill in the application for adoption (B1 form) and send it directly to our Canine Unit in Nettuno, following the instructions on our website.
