

G6: Key Eu Ministers meet in Rome

Interior Ministers from Spain, France, Germany, the UK, Italy and Poland will attend their 21st meeting at Scuola Superiore di Polizia (Italian Police Academy) on 12-13 September in Rome. The USA and the European Commission are also participating. The G6 starts today in the afternoon, with a meeting on the issue of gender violence with special focus on femicide. On the second day, the ministers' meeting will be divided into four working sessions to discuss terrorism, cyber crime, immigration and organized crime.

Italian

12/09/2013